Convergence by breaking stereotype

The comic strip consists of four panels:

- Panel 1: Text: "The curved sectional planes of human 3D model parallel to surface help us understand how deep the inside structures are." Illustration: Four Matryoshka dolls of decreasing size.
- Panel 2: Text: "It can be said that sectional anatomy and surface anatomy have converged." Illustration: A character in a green shirt pointing to a box labeled "Stereotype".
- Panel 3: Text: "Broken stereotype: Sectional and surface anatomy are independent fields." Illustration: A character in a green shirt talking on a smartphone.
- Panel 4: Text: "In academic meeting, workshop is the convergence of working and shopping." Illustration: Two characters in green shirts, one holding a shopping bag.

Additional text in the comic panels:

- Below Panel 1: "Like the Russian Matryoshka dolls."
- Below Panel 3: "Broken stereotype: Phone, audio player, camera, computer are independent instruments."
- Below Panel 4: "Broken stereotype: Working and shopping are independent activities."
